3./ Fundamental principles

By preparing and making available this notice, the Company intends to fulfil its obligations laid down in the GDPR Regulation, including the information obligation to data subjects.

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the data subjects receive adequate information about the data processed by the Company or transferred to a processor employed by the Company, of the name and address of the Processor, the purpose and legal ground as well as duration of processing, and the legal ground of the transfer of data.

The Company processes the personal data of guests only with the prior written consent of the data subject, or in order to execute a contract or perform a legal obligation. Prior to recording any data, the Company always informs the data subject of the purpose and legal ground of processing.

The Company applies the following principles during the processing of personal data:

- Lawfulness, fairness and transparency: Personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly and transparency for the Guests;
- Personal data are collected only for specific, clear and lawful reasons and they are not processed in any manner that is not compatible with these objectives.
- Accuracy: Personal data must be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
- Storage limitation: Personal data must be kept in a form which permits identification of the Guest for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, subject to the implementation of the appropriate technical or organisational measures required in the GDPR Regulation in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of the Guest;
- Integrity and confidentiality must be processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.
- Accountability: The Company is responsible for complying with the fundamental principles and must be able to demonstrate such compliance.

II./ Security measures

1./ Security measures applied towards the Employees

Employees engaged in processing at the Company and individuals involved in processing based on a contract with the Company shall treat the obtained personal data as business secret and shall preserve them. Individuals processing and accessing personal data shall provide a Confidentiality Statement. While performing their activities, the employees of the Company shall ensure that no unauthorised persons can have access to personal data and that personal data are stored and placed without being accessible, obtainable, alterable or destroyable by any unauthorised person.

2.5./ Right to rectification

Each Guest has the right to propose a modification in their data processed by AUGUSZTA HOTEL at any time. This can be done by using the Hotel's contact details, on the phone, by post or via electronic mail.

2.6./ Right to restriction of processing

The Guest shall have the right to obtain from the Hotel restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the Guest, in which case the restriction related to the period during which the Company can verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful but the Guest opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- the Guest objected to data processing; in such cases the restriction shall only apply to the time period necessary to determine whether the Controller's justified needs precede the needs of the Data Subject.

Where processing has been restricted, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the Guest's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.

The Hotel shall notify the data subject Guest in advance based on the request of whom the data processing activity is restricted, regarding the lifting of such restriction.

2.7. Right to object

Each Guest shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her in the following cases:

- processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Company or
- processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Company or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the Guest which require protection of personal data

The Company shall no longer process personal data unless demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the Guest or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

The personal data supplied by the Guest to the Hotel may be processed for any purpose other than the original purpose of collection only if such processing is compatible with the original purpose of processing.

Each Guest may request the modification or erasure of their data or report objection to processing at any time, by sending an e-mail to the Hotel's central e-mail address postal address or in person in the financial office of the Hotel. The Company shall respond to the Guest's letter or satisfy the Guest's request, providing that it is compatible with its rights specified by law, without any unreasonable delay, or within no more than 15 days or, if this Policy specifies a sort of term, then within the term specified therein.

The Hotel informs the Guests that the processed data are not used for profiling or automatic decision-making.

3./ Complaint handling

3.1./ Place, time, method of complaint administration, options to enforce rights

The website uses cookies in relation to which you may receive further information under the "further information" item of the pop up window and by reading the 'cookie policy' during your visit to the website. The cookie policy constitutes Annex 3 of this Notice.

V./ Managing personal data breach

A data breach incident is a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transferred, stored or otherwise processed.

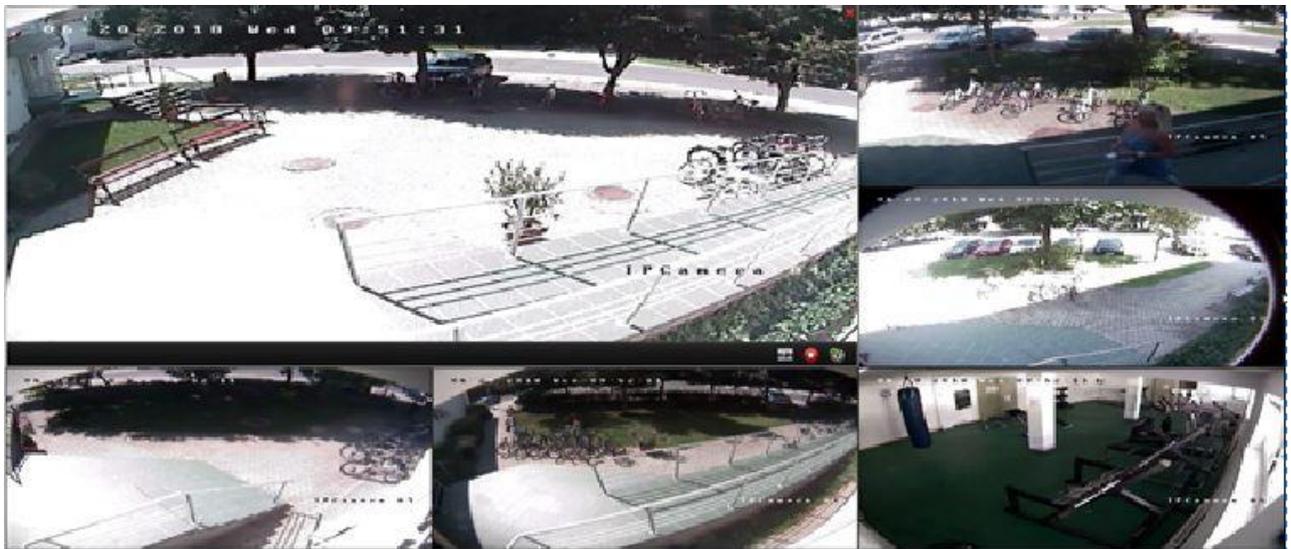

As soon as the Hotel becomes aware of any personal data breach relating to any data processed by it, it should notify the supervisory authority without undue delay and, where feasible, not later than 72 hours after having become aware of it, unless the Hotel is able to demonstrate, in accordance with the accountability principle, that the personal data breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons.

Where such notification cannot be made within 72 hours, the reasons for the delay should accompany the notification and the required information must be provided in detail without any undue further delay.

The Hotel should communicate to the data subject any detected personal data breach, without undue delay, where that personal data breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of the Guest in order to allow him or her to take the necessary precautions. In the communication the Hotel describes the nature of the personal data breach as well as makes recommendations for the Guest to mitigate potential adverse effects.

Following the detection of a personal data breach the Hotel shall assess whether all appropriate technological protection and organisational measures have been implemented to establish immediately whether a personal data breach has taken place and to inform promptly the supervisory authority and the Guest. In order to do so, the director proceeding on behalf of the Hotel calls the members, all individuals processing data and the external IT expert, within 24 hours from learning about the incident, to conclude the root cause of the incident, to review any completed action plan and to elaborate actions plans to be implemented and to introduce measures required to avoid future incidents.
